TOKEN AND MEDAL AUCTION #22
CLOSING DATE - APRIL 18, 1977*

Welcome to our 22nd token and medal auction. In terms of its overall quality, we feel that this is our best yet. We are again honored with a consignment from the J. Doyle DeWitt Collection housed at the University of Hartford which features a George II Indian Peace Medal in silver. Please be certain to mail your bids in early. We had to reject no less than ten bidders last time because their bids arrived past the deadline.

BIDDING RULES

1. Bid the highest amount you are willing to pay on the lot. Your bid will be reduced to a 5-10% advance over the second highest bid. This is not an idle statement - we actually do this. Bids under $5.00 will not be reduced.
2. In instances where there are duplicate lots, you may bid on an either/or basis and indicate a preference if you like.
3. You may establish an overall limit on your winnings. Just indicate on your bid sheet.
4. All invoices are payable within 7 days of receipt. Returns must be made within this period. THE ONLY LEGITIMATE REASON FOR RETURNING A LOT IS IF IT HAS NOT BEEN CORRECTLY DESCRIBED!! Bidders who persist in returning lots because "I obtained one in the meantime" and because they made a mistake in their bidding will have their names removed from our list!!

AUCTION SUBSCRIPTION

Our auction sales are sent by subscription only. If you wish to receive future auctions with prices realized, our subscription rate is $2.00 for the next four sales. Please do not forget to check the appropriate box on your bid and order sheet.

Lot 819 was withdrawn because of erroneous information received by our consignor. This counter-stamp was made in the middle part of this century and not in the early part of the last century.

We are in the process of purchasing the token and medal inventory of Dorge. George and Doris Fuld are, for the immediate future at least, retiring from the token and medal business. This will be a great loss to all of us as the Fuld's auctions were among the best in the business.

The fact that the Dorge Auctions will cease places increased pressure upon our auction sales in terms of the consignments we will be able to accept. Unless a lot can be described by a one line catalog number, we now must insist that all consignment lots have a $10.00 estimated value. Our other consignment terms (20% commission and immediate payment after 30 days from the sale end) are still in effect.
